

SACRED HYMN · SANSKRIT (DEVANAGARI) WITH MEANING

BATUK BHAIRAV MANTRA

Traditional, from the Rudrayamala

THE COMPLETE HYMN · SANSKRIT (DEVANAGARI)

The mula mantra followed by two dhyana verses, the calm white form and the fierce dark form, in the order they are recited before the stotra.

MANTRA 1

ॐ ह्रीं बटुकाय आपदुद्धारणाय कुरु कुरु बटुकाय ह्रीं ॥

Om, Hrim. To Batuka, to the one who lifts his devotees out of calamity: act, act, O Batuka. Hrim.

DHYANAM 1

वन्दे बालं स्फटिकसदृशं कुण्डलोद्भासिवक्त्रं दिव्याकल्पैर्नवमणिमयैः किङ्किणीनूपुराढ्यैः ।
दीप्ताकारं विशदवदनं सुप्रसन्नं त्रिनेत्रं हस्ताग्राभ्यां बटुकमनिशं शूलदण्डौ दधानम् ॥

I bow to Batuka, the boy as clear as crystal, his face shining with earrings, adorned with divine ornaments of the nine gems and rich with small waist-bells and anklets. Radiant in form, bright of face, gracious and three-eyed, he holds at all times the trident and the staff in his hands.

DHYANAM 2

करकलितकपालः कुण्डली दण्डपाणिस्तरुणतिमिरनीलो व्यालयज्ञोपवीती ।
क्रतुसमयसपर्याविघ्नविच्छेदेहेतुर्जयति बटुकनाथः सिद्धिदः साधकानाम् ॥

A skull-bowl held in his hand, wearing earrings, a staff in his other hand, dark blue like deep night, with a serpent as his sacred thread; he cuts away the obstacles that arise in worship at the time of the rite. Victory to Batukanatha, who grants accomplishment to those who practise.
