

SACRED HYMN · SANSKRIT (DEVANAGARI) WITH MEANING

NAVA NAGA STOTRAM

Traditional

THE COMPLETE HYMN · SANSKRIT (DEVANAGARI)

The nine names of the serpent lords and the lines of benefit that close them, followed by the Sarpa Gayatri.

VERSE 1

अनन्तं वासुकिं शेषं पद्मनाभं च कम्बलम् ।
शङ्खपालं धृतराष्ट्रं तक्षकं कालियं तथा ॥

Ananta, Vasuki, Shesha, Padmanabha and Kambala; Shankhapala, Dhritarashtra, Takshaka and likewise Kaliya.

PHALA SHRUTI 1

एतानि नवनामानि नागानां च महात्मनाम् ।
सायङ्काले पठेन्नित्यं प्रातःकाले विशेषतः ॥

These are the nine names of the great-souled serpent lords. One should recite them daily in the evening, and especially in the morning.

PHALA SHRUTI 2

तस्य विषभयं नास्ति सर्वत्र विजयी भवेत् ॥

The verse says that for such a person there is no fear of poison, and that he becomes victorious everywhere.

MANTRA 1

ॐ नवकुलाय विद्महे विषदन्ताय धीमहि ।
तन्नो सर्पः प्रचोदयात् ॥

Om. We come to know the lord of the nine serpent clans; we meditate on the one with poison-bearing fangs. May the Serpent inspire and guide us.

READ IT ON ITS PAGE

The Nava Naga Stotram with its meaning, how and when it is recited, and the same text in five more scripts:
astrobhava.com/mantra/nava-naga-stotram/

PERFORMED FOR YOU

THE KAALA SARPA DOSHA SHANTI HOMA, IN YOUR NAME

At our Yagna Ashram, telecast live · astrobhava.com/product/kaala-sarpa-dosha-shanti-homa/

Book →

AstroBhava · www.astrobhava.com · support@astrobhava.com · +91 96295 55442

An initiative of Vedhon Management Consultants (OPC) Pvt Ltd, Pollachi